On the motion of Mr. Warburton, the thanks of the Meeting were voted to Sir George Grey, for his conduct in the Chair.

Sir George Grey returned thanks.

REPORT.

THE Council have at last to congratulate the Proprietors on the accomplishment of one of the principal objects of their Institution. The University of London is in full operation: and such distinctions and rewards as it is the custom of Universities throughout Europe to confer on the successful cultivators of learning may be obtained in England by all classes of persons without exception on account of religious opinions.

In their last Report the Council announced the publication by the University of Regulations for Examinations for Degrees in Arts and Laws, and informed the Proprietors of the steps which it had been deemed expedient to take in consequence of the delay in the appearance of the Regulations respecting Degrees in Medicine. Those Regulations were soon afterwards issued, and Examinations as well in Medicine as in Arts and Laws were held and Degrees conferred.

DEGREES IN ARTS.

In the month of June last the Degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred by the University on seventeen Candidates, ranked by the Examiners in two classes according to their merit. Twelve were placed in the first division and five in the second: of the seventeen Candidates, thirteen were Students of University College; eleven of whom were placed in the first division and two in the second.

In Chemistry and Physiology, which it is at present at the option of the Candidates to be examined in or not, three Candidates only presented themselves, one in the former, two in the latter. They were all Students of University College.

In the subsequent Examination for Honours in Mathematics, one Candidate only, Mr. Jacob Waley, who obtained the Flaherty Scholarship of this College in the preceding autumn, appeared and passed. The University Scholarship of 50*l.* a year for three years was awarded to him. Of the five Candidates for Honours in Classics, three were from this College, and took the first places in the order of proficiency, Mr. Waley being at the head of the list.

DEGREES IN MEDICINE.

Examinations for Degrees in Medicine were held in July. At the First Examination there passed sixteen Candidates; nine were placed in the first division, seven in the second. Of the nine in the first class, five, of the seven in the second, two, were Students of University College.

At the Second Examination in Medicine, the passing of which entitled the Candidate to the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine, nine were passed; of these one only was placed in the first division. He was one of the five Students of University College who went into that Examination.

The Degree of Doctor of Medicine was at a subsequent Examination conferred on two gentlemen, both of whom were Students of this College. To one of these, Dr. Taylor, the University Gold Medal for a "Commentary on a Case in Medicine" with a Certificate of extraordinary Medical Proficiency, was awarded.

DEGREES IN LAWS.

The Examination for Degrees in Laws was held in November. Three Students, all being of University College, were examined; one of the three, Mr. John Richard Quain, was placed in the first division, and to him, after a subsequent Examination for Honours, the University Law Scholarship of 50*l.* a year for three years was awarded for proficiency in Jurisprudence.

The result of the first year's proceedings, on recapitulation, is,—In Arts, four Exhibitioners on Matriculation, seventeen Bachelors, one University Scholar: in Medicine, nine Bachelors, two Doctors, one Gold Medalist: in Laws, three Bachelors, one University Law Scholar.

At the Matriculation Examination in October last, being that of the second year, thirty Students were passed. Four went into the voluntary Examination in Chemistry, two to that of Natural History. Of four to whom Exhibitions were granted after the Examinution for Honours, three were from this College, namely, Mr. Todhunter, in Mathematics; Mr. Barrow Helbert Ellis and Mr. John Philip Martineau, in Classics.

For the list of Students who passed at this second year's Matriculation Examination the Council refer to the Appendix to their Report.*

FLAHERTY SCHOLARSHIP.

The Flaherty Scholarship of this College, for the year 1839, for the best proficient in the Classics, was awarded to Mr. Charles Peter Mason.

TWO YEARS' STUDENTSHIP.

Regulations determining the qualifications which entitle a Student of this College to a Certificate required by the Senate of the University of having been a Student during two years, and which were under consideration at the time that the last Report was made, have been since established by the Council, and will be found in the Appendix. By these regulations the attendants on the Class of Schoolmasters, formed in pursuance of the arrangements proposed by Lord Brougham for the application of the Interest of the Donations of a "Patriot", are to be considered as Students of the College if they submit to examination. They have therefore the opportunity of becoming admissible to the Examination for Degrees and subjecting their qualifications to a satisfactory test. The Council have observed with pleasure that an Exhibition of 30*l.* a year for two years was obtained at the last Matriculation Examination of the University by a gentleman, Mr. Todhunter, who is in attendance on this Class.

The Class has been renewed this Session.

* The names of those who were examined for Degrees will also be found arranged in tabular form in the Appendix.

At the close of the last Session the vacant Professorships of the Principles and Practice of Medicine and of English Language and Literature were filled up by the Council. Dr. C. B. Williams was appointed to the former.

Impressed with the importance of extending and improving Medical Clinical Instruction in the School of Medicine of the College, the Council, on the recommendation of the Medical Faculty, availed themselves of the vacancy in the office of Physician to the Hospital, to procure the advantage of the permanent services of Dr. Carswell as Clinical Instructor, by a new apportionment of the In-patients of the Hospital between the three Physicians, Dr. Carswell, Dr. Thomson, and Dr. Williams.

The Professorship of English had become vacant by the resignation of Mr. Rogers, who had accepted an appointment at the recently endowed College at Spring Hill, near Birmingham. Mr. Robert Gordon Latham, M.A., of King's College, Cambridge, has been chosen his successor.

The Council have to report that the entries to the Classes, and the amount of the receipt of fees in the past Session exceeded those of the former Session, and that the improvement is owing to an increase in the general Classes of the College. The total number of Pupils who entered to the College Classes and the School during the last Session was 1005. Nine Students having entered to both Faculties the numbers in the respective departments were as follows:

In the Faculty of Arts - - -	156
Faculty of Medicine - -	494
Junior School - - - -	364

The fees amounted to 14,162*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.*, being a small increase on the receipt of the former year.

The number of new Pupils entered to the Practice of the Hospital, and the amount of fees received on that account for the Session 1838—39, somewhat exceeded those of the former year. The number of new entries was 151, the fees paid, 3512*l.* But the Council desire to impress on the Proprietors and the Public that the support derived to the Hospital from the fees of Students is necessarily precarious and liable to vary in amount; and that in order to defray the heavy expenses incurred for the maintenance of the patients, and to render the establishment as beneficial as it is capable of becoming, it is essential that the residents in its neighbourhood and the friends of the College should exert themselves to procure subscriptions and donations; of an increase in which the Hospital at this moment stands much in need.

In the current Session the entries to the Classes of the Medical School are less numerous than they were at the same period last year. The Council are informed that the number of Students who have come to London this Session is less than usual. The number of Students entered for the first time to the general Classes has increased, as has also the amount of fees; but there is a diminution of four in the total number of attendants on the Classes.

In the Junior School the number of boys who have entered up to this date exceeds considerably that of the last year or two, and is greater than it has ever before been at the corresponding period of the Session.

The College portion of the receipts of the Session amounted to 4267*l.* 8*s.* The ordinary expenses incurred on account of the Session were 3462*l.* 10*s.* 4*d.*, leaving a surplus of income above the expenditure for ordinary purposes of 804*l.* 17*s.* 8*d.* A sum of 132*l.* 2*s.* 11*d.* for Interest on Exchequer Bills, considered as an extra receipt, added to the income makes a total of 4399*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.* The extraordinary payments were 563*l.* 1*s.* 4*d.* for various improvements and adaptations of the building, and additions to furniture and apparatus; 180*l.* interest on mortgage; 60*l.* guarantee to a Professor; and 122*l.* 5*s.* 10*d.* for anatomical models. The total expense therefore was 4387*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*, and the actual balance 11*l.* 13*s.* 5*d.*

It is with pain that the Council announce the discovery of a deficiency in the accounts of Mr. Lintott, late secretary to the Hospital. It has been ascertained that he omitted to charge himself with sums received by him on account of the Hospital to the amount of 304*l.* 8*s.* In diminution of this sum the treasurer has received 152*l.* 7*s.*, the value of the furniture of Mr.

Lintott, of which he gave a bill of sale on the detection of his defalcation. Thus there remains an ascertained deficiency of 152*l.* 1*s.*; and the Council have reason to apprehend that besides that sum several fees of Pupils remain unaccounted for.

In the course of the year the Council have received notice of two Bequests to the College. The first is a Legacy of 1000*l.*, free of duty, bequeathed by Mr. George Henry Longridge, late of Gateshead and of Brighton, who died on 31st July last. This Legacy will be payable at the expiration of a year from the testator's death.

The other donation is contained in the will of Mr. Peter Bacon, late of the Stock Exchange, and consists of a Bequest of 10,000*l.* East-India Stock, payable at the death of his widow, which Stock, at the present market price, is worth about 25,000*l.*

When the time shall arrive at which these Bequests shall be received there is no doubt that the Council on whom the duty may devolve of applying the bounty of the Testators, will act upon the principle so often recognised by the Proprietors, that all donations are to be considered as permanent endowments in furtherance of the great objects for which this Institution was founded.

The Council have caused transfers to be made of the invested funds of the College, from the names of the respective Trustees in which they stood in the books of the Bank of England, to that of University College. A table of these investments, according to their present amount of stock, worth in the aggregate about 9,250*l.* sterling, will form a part of the Appendix to this Report.

This is exclusive of Mr. Brundrett's donation of 500*l.*, which formed part of the balance of 753*l.* at the bankers', Messrs. Smith and Co., at the close of the Session, and which has not yet been invested.

CHARLES C. ATKINSON,

Secretary to the Council.

2. That a Student be required to have attended, during each of two years, two long Courses of Lectures, or one long and two short Courses, or four short Courses, on subjects included in the Examination of the University for the Degree of B.A.

3. That those Courses be accounted long Courses in which Lectures are delivered during eighty hours in the Session; and that those Courses only be counted as short Courses in which Lectures are delivered during forty hours in the Session, and less than eighty.

4. That attendance on either French or German, the Course consisting of eighty hours of Lectures, may be counted as attendance on a long Course, but not attendance on both as two long Courses.

5. That each of the four Courses of Lectures on Greek, Latin, Mathematics, and Natural Philosophy, delivered exclusively to Schoolmasters and Ushers, although not amounting to forty hours, may be counted as a short Course.

* The Regulations of the University, published by Messrs. Taylor, Red Lion Court, Fleet Street, may be had of Messrs. Taylor and Walton, Booksellers to the College, 28, Upper Gower Street.

6. That a Student be not accounted to have attended a Class unless he go through the Examinations of that Class, both before Christmas, if the Class is then examined, and at the close of the Session.

In case of there being no examination of the Extra Senior Classes of Latin and Greek, Students desirous of counting attendance on those Courses must go through the Examinations of the ordinary Senior Classes.

Attendance on the Courses addressed to Schoolmasters and Ushers will not be counted unless the Student submit to examination in the Classes of Greek, Latin, Mathematics, and Natural Philosophy.

7. That the Professors of all the Classes, attendance on which may be counted for Studentship, and which belong exclusively to the Faculty of Arts, keep a record of the attendance of Students, and that a monthly abstract of these records be made and preserved in the Office, in which the number of times that each Student has been absent during the month shall be noted.

8. That Students attending such Classes be required to assign a reason, in writing, whenever they have been absent.

9. That when any Student shall have been absent more than a fortnight, from illness, the certificate of his medical attendant shall be required, and shall be immediately submitted to the Faculty of Arts, or to any Committee appointed by them from Session to Session, who shall decide upon the circumstances of the case, as to whether the Course or Courses which the Student shall have been attending shall be allowed or not.

10. That Certificates of Studentship be granted in the first instance by the Faculty of Arts, and be signed by the Dean on behalf of the Faculty before they are signed on behalf of the Council; and that a Meeting of Faculty for the purpose of granting Certificates be held at least three days before the day on which the Certificates are required by the University of London.

11. That every Student requesting a Certificate of Studentship be required to send to the Dean at least two days before the Meeting of Faculty the Certificates of attendance from the Professors whose Courses he has attended.

12. That every Student requesting a Certificate of Studentship be examined by the Faculty: and, if the Faculty think him not competent to undergo the examination of the University, it have power to refuse the Certificate.

13. That this Examination be conducted in the following manner:

(a.) As the University of London will require a competent knowledge of four branches of learning and science, enumerated in lines 422–429 of the Regulations, that the Faculty be divided into Four Committees accordingly.

That the First Committee consist of the Professors of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy;

The Second Committee, of the Professors of Chemistry, Botany, and Zoology;

The Third Committee, of the Professors of Latin, Greek, History, French, and the Teacher of German;

The Fourth Committee, of the Professors of Logic and English.

(b.) That these Committees meet for the purpose of examining Students at some convenient times before the Meeting of Faculty for granting Certificates; and examine vivâ voce, or in whatever manner shall seem good to them.

(c.) That every Student shall be examined by each Committee.

(d.) That each Committee shall make a Report to the Faculty on the competency of the Student in their branch of the Examination.

14. That, notwithstanding the above Regulations, Students requesting Certificates in the year 1840, shall not be required to have attended more than one Course in any year previous to October 1839, provided that such Course be that of a Professor included in the First or Third Committees of the Faculty: but if the Session 1839–40 be one year of their attendance, they be required in that Session to conform to the above Regulations.

15. That in the year 1840 Students be examined only by the First and Third Committees of the Faculty.

LAWS.

16. That the complete Courses of Lectures on Law and on Jurisprudence be considered as equivalent to long Courses in the Faculty of Arts, and the several divisions of those Courses (provided that each is not divided into more than two portions) as equivalent to short Courses. That with this interpretation, the Regulations respecting Certificates required of Candidates for Degrees in Arts, so far as those Regulations relate to attendance upon Lectures, be applied to Certificates to Candidates for Degrees in Laws. That on these Certificates it be specified that they are given to Candidates for a Degree in Law.

Certificates of Good Conduct.

17. That every Student applying to the Council for the required Certificate of good conduct, produce Certificates of good conduct from every Professor in the Faculty of Arts whose Lectures he has attended. Provided, however, that when a Student shall have attended Lectures during more than two Sessions, Professors' Certificates shall be required only for the last two Sessions of such attendance.
